

Thomas Title & Escrow News!

Dear clients and friends,

We are pleased to announce the addition of Brett L. Hopper as Executive Vice President. Mr. Hopper has over 18 years of real estate experience. His distinguished background includes practicing real estate and finance law with two large Arizona law firms (Jennings, Strouss & Salmon and Fennemore Craig), and more recently, serving as Vice President of Residential Development and Investment for Trammell Crow Company. Prior to Trammell Crow, he served seven years as Vice President of Land Acquisition for D.R. Horton, one of the largest homebuilders in the country.

I expect that Mr. Hopper's leadership and expertise will provide a unique dimension to our firm as well as an acute understanding of our clients' needs that will further our efforts of becoming a premier national provider of title insurance and escrow services.
